

Christmas goods at Wolfe's.
Buckwheat and maple syrup at S. P. Mays'.

W. R. McGregor, of Santa Fe, was in town the first of the week.

Every customer at Wolfe's gets a chance at Christmas presents.

Miss Lydia Creekmore, of Byrd's Still, is in town this week, the guest of Miss Alyne Byrd.

For useful Christmas presents read of S. J. White in this issue.

J. M. Strickland's is the place to buy your enameled ware. oct-8-1f

J. B. Barton spent several days at Citra this week looking after his business interest there.

Boys' "Knickerbocker" Suits in sizes 16 and 17, just received at S. J. White's.

Wanted—To buy a milk cow. Mrs. J. D. Hancock, P. O. box 315, Live Oak, Fla.

A. W. McLeran, a prominent Wellborn merchant, was transacting business in this city Monday.

About 500 of men's and women's shoes going at cost at R. L. White's.

Nice piece of silver with every pound of Hero-coffee at S. P. Mays'.

The board of public instruction will meet on Thursday, December 23rd, in special session, for the purpose of paying the teachers their salary before the holidays.

Enameled ware at J. M. Strickland's cheap. oct-8-1f

Complete line of bed-room slippers for men, ladies and children, in all colors in felt, will make a suitable Xmas present at S. J. White's.

WOOD FOR SALE—Oak $3.50 per cord; Pine $3.00 delivered to any part of the city. Special price on orders for five or more cords. Phone or leave your orders with R. L. White or write O. H. Byrd, R. F. D. 4.

1909 Christmas Goods

Will be Displayed this week
Very Reasonable in Price

Endless in Variety, Cheap in Price.

The old stand

WOLFE ON THE CORNER.

Fruit cake, pound cake, marble cake for Xmas at S. F. Mays'.

Red pepper and sage in bulk for making sausages, at R. L. White's.

Mrs. S. E. Sutton went down to Perry Sunday and is spending the week there the guest of relatives.

Cheapest place in town to buy your groceries at R. L. White's.

Buy your enameled ware from J. M. Strickland and save from life to life on all purchases. oct-8-1f

Miss Ethel Sadler, a most charming young lady of Lake City, will arrive today, and will be the guest of Miss Maggie Hadden for several days.

I have a few bushels of the Government cotton seed left that can be bought for $4 per bushel. E. R. Wain, Live Oak, Fla., R. F. D. No. 4.

Miss Maggie Hadden, who is attending the Florida Female College at Tallahassee, is expected home today, and will remain until after the holidays.

It will pay you to come to Santa Claus' Store to do your Xmas shopping.

Imported French and German mechanical toys, and many other fancy novelties to please children. See this display, at H. A. Blackburn's.

Judge McClellan, of Wellborn, who so ably represented this county in the legislature, a few years since, was in the city the first of the week on business.

Do your Xmas shopping, at Cook's. Xmas and new year gifts ready, at Cook's.

Col. J. M. Gentry, of Mays, was in this city a few hours Sunday evening. Col. Gentry was on his way to Tallahassee to look after important legal matters Monday.

Christmas cards, calendars, fancy leather goods, cut glass, silverware and fancy China and glassware, at H. A. Blackburn's.

Don't buy your Xmas presents until you visit Santa Claus' Store.

Miss Ethel Hair, one of Live Oak's most talented ladies, who has been teaching in the high school at Punta Gorda, arrived home Sunday evening and will be here until after the holidays.

Over five hundred dollars worth of Bibles and Testaments, at Cook's.

Four elegant Christmas presents given away at Wolfe's.

Mrs. M. J. Waller and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Clark, of Merritt, Miss., after a most delightful two week visit to Col. and Mrs. Ira J. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wallace, left Monday for their home.

There is nothing sicer than a nice Bible for Xmas present. Get it at Cook's.

If you contemplate buying a nice box of Xmas candy for your girl, get Lowney's, at Cook's.

The great sale of Christmas goods is now going on. Do your shopping early before the rush. It will do your eyes and feelings good to visit the store of H. A. Blackburn.

The Masonic lodge, at their meeting Monday night will have work in the third degree; the annual election of officers and time for payment of annual dues. All Masons are urged to attend this meeting.

Have you seen that pretty line of gold watches for ladies, at J. D. Radford's.

The Man With a Million

does not deposit with us, nor do we want him to. Our institution is for the farmer, the business man and all others who want a safe place to keep their earnings or who may need an occasional loan.

We are fixed to take care of all such, and invite you to make yourselves at home when in our place of business.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF LIVE OAK,
Live Oak, Fla.

WILSON & THOMPSON

When you have to buy

COFFINS AND CASKETS.

They Carry Everything in the Undertaking Line.

EMBALMING A SPECIALTY.

SELLING OUT SALE.

At The Parsley Building Opposite Post Office.

Everything is ordered to be moved on account of not having the right location and this will give the people of Live Oak and surrounding country a chance to buy their goods below factory cost. Look for the place opposite the court house. This will only last a few days. Parley Black.

Tips of every description at Santa Claus' Store.

Who, you want drugs and books get your hat and go to Cook's.

School will close today for the holidays.

Buy your drugs and books and have your prescription filled, at Cook's.

Why not buy your wife one of those pretty gold watches—O size, at J. D. Radford's, for a Christmas present?

St. Luke's Guild will be glad to receive your order for that Christmas Fruit Cake. Order as early as possible. Phone 36.

Over a thousand dollars worth of fireworks, at Santa Claus' Store.

Mrs. R. F. Hopkins and little daughter were visiting in Jacksonville several days this week.

Xmas goods of every description, at Santa Claus' Store.

Mrs. W. E. McGregor, and little daughter, Rosamond, of Santa Fe, are in the city visiting Mrs. McGregor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Barden, and will be here until after the holidays.

Small carriages, go-carts, boy's wagons, tricycles, two wheels and child and baby's rocking chairs, at H. A. Blackburn's.

Miss Sadler, member of the firm of Robinson & Wallace, who conducts what is said to be the best country and machine shop in the State, was in Jacksonville the latter part of last week on business.

Santa Claus' Store, the only store in the State handling nothing but Xmas goods.

Mrs. J. B. Barton went down to Jacksonville yesterday on a shopping tour and to meet her daughter, Miss Haffy, who is attending school at St. Joseph's Academy, St. Augustine. They expect to return home tomorrow and Miss Haffy will stay until after the holidays.

Five thousand dollars worth of Xmas goods at the Santa Claus' Store.

Eugene Davis, now in Live Oak Saturday on his way to Perry, from Fort Pierce, where he has been for several months. Mr. Davis at one time lived in this city and his many friends were glad to see him. He goes to Perry to spend the holidays with his father, Jeff L. Davis.

Nice line holiday perfumes, at Cook's.

Miss Clara Hall will leave this afternoon for her home, Jacksonville, and she expects to remain until after the holidays.

Finest assortment Christmas cards at Wolfe's.

Mrs. L. J. Efrd and little son, spent Sunday night in Lake City with relatives. They returned home Monday on the morning train.

Don't fail to read the Holiday Messenger from Santa Claus' Store.

Fireworks, fireworks, fireworks, at Cook's.

Mrs. Catharine Calhoun, of Atlanta, who has been here for the past two weeks on a visit to her sisters, Mrs. Eugene Pichard and Miss Del Douglas, will return home tomorrow.

Fine line of Lowney's Xmas candy at Santa Claus' Store.

Fine line of Lowney's Xmas candy, at Cook's.

J. R. Sloan, a prominent real estate dealer of Savannah, was in the city last week on business. This was his first visit to our city and he is very favorably impressed with the hustle and business enterprise of Live Oak.

Nothing but Xmas goods at the Santa Claus' Store.

Miss Annie Jones, of Apopka, who has been in the city for the past several days visiting Mrs. J. J. Jones and Miss Aileen Byrd, left last Friday for Lake City for a few days visit to friends before returning home.

Xmas toys for girls and boys, at Cook's.

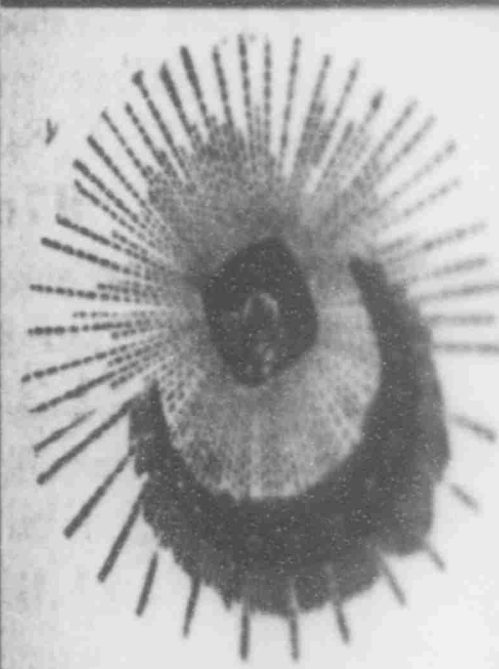

Live Oak merchants have great stocks and piles of Holiday goods, and are advertising and pushing sales as much as possible. They do not want to carry this stock over, and it will pay all readers of the Democrat to do their Christmas shopping with merchants who advertise and are asking for their business.

Don't buy your Christmas goods until you visit Santa Claus' Store.

Miss Nettie Swinton and Miss Sallie Anderson expect to leave this afternoon for Savannah, where Miss Swinton will be the guest of Miss Anderson for a few days before going on to Charleston, S. C., for a visit to relatives. Miss Anderson will remain in Savannah for the holidays.

The finest line of holiday goods ever displayed in Live Oak at Santa Claus' Store.

Eward Strange, who recently came here from Michigan, has purchased a tract of land just east of the city and will improve it and put it in cultivation. He understands truck farming and believes this section of the State will produce early vegetables and fruits as well or better than any other section of the country. Mr. Strange has fallen in love with Florida and will endeavor to get several of his friends in Michigan to move here this winter.

Gift Buying Time Is The Present Time

The gift problem is one easily solved if you purchase now. Our stock is now displayed and offers you a most select line from which to make your selection.

Some of Our Gift Reminders

Gifts For Ladies	Gifts For Men	Gifts For Family
Brooches	Watches	Diamonds
Lockets	Sharf Pins	Cut Glass
Signet and Set	Link Buttons	Carving Sets
Rings	Signet and Set	Clocks
Bracelets	Rings	Umbrellas
Watches	Fobs	Silver Tea Sets
Toilet Sets	Brooches	China Sets
Manicure Sets	Fraternity Pins	Silver Sets
Jewel Boxes	Watch Chains	Trays

Beautiful Line of Ladies No. 0 Size Gold Watches, Suitable and Useful Presents.

Hand Painted Chinaware In Sets and Odd Pieces.

Watch Repairing and Engraving a Specialty

J. D. Radford, Jeweler, Live Oak, Fla.